

Simultaneous Interpretation

Seminars

---

Are you fluent in more than one language? Are you interested in becoming a professional interpreter?

Join us for two interactive evening seminars with visiting international experts in the field of simultaneous interpretation. Find out more about the rewards and challenges of working in this field as the presenters share their professional and personal experiences, give you tips on how to become employable in the profession, and answer your questions.

Seminar with Dr. Stanley Song

July 22, 6-9pm; UBC Point Grey. $30

DR. STANLEY SONG worked as a professional simultaneous interpreter while also teaching interpreting, translation, Chinese culture and society, and Chinese politics at universities in New South Wales in Australia. He is now Convenor (in charge) of the Master of Conference Interpreting Program at Macquarie University.

Seminar with Dr. Yvonne Hu

Thursday, July 23, 6-9pm; UBC Robson Square. $30

DR. YVONNE HU is the owner and managing director of Conference Interpreter Services, an independent business servicing the convention and business events industry. Yvonne is a regular speaker at industry conferences, forums and guest lectures at universities in Australia, China, and Taiwan. She has been awarded the professional accreditation from Australia's National Accreditation Authority for Translators and Interpreters (NAATI).
